RANCHING LEGACY LEADERSHIP PROGRAM

Nominations are open for 2022 Class

To be considered for the leadership program, participants will need to submit a letter of interest to the CCA office by November 1st. The pool of applicants will undergo brief interviews for the selection process before the final class is chosen.

A GOOD CANDIDATE:

- Strong foundational knowledge of CCA and past involvement of CCA
- A desire to be actively involved in CCA in the future
- Willing to engage outside of CCA in civic activities on local/state level opportunities (boards & commissions, interest groups, etc.)
- Commitment to engaging/uplifting others to create a foundation for their leadership activities.

PROGRAM OUTLINE:

- 12 month program
- Required traveling to Denver and state-wide meetings.
- Meetings will be held in conjunction with CCA Mid-Winter Meetings and Annual Convention, a two-day session in Denver, and will be required to attend a Ranching Legacy Lectureship during the twelve-month period.

Contact Erin Karney (erin@coloradocattle.org, 303-431-6422) at the CCA office for further information or if you have any questions about the application process.
